Why you should get

Professional

Newborn Photography

Each day your baby grows and changes, before you even realise, weeks and months will pass, and you will find them enter a new stage of their journey growing up. It is so very important to photograph your baby at this time and capture him or her in the first weeks of their life.

I'll be extra gentle with your little one and make sure that they're safe throughout their newborn photography session. I'll also work to put your mind at ease if you have any concerns about the safety of your child.

Hi there,

I'm Sabrina Luz

SABRINA LUZ

Studio

As a newborn photographer, I understand the importance of capturing those precious first moments with your new baby. I specialize in creating timeless and beautiful portraits of your little one that you will cherish for a lifetime.

Posed newborn photography is my specialty.

The sets I create are all styled with great care and your baby is gently posed to highlight their features.

All my work that I produce today – that did not happen overnight. I've spent years perfecting my craft and I'm still learning. With experience comes the knowledge that you're going to receive the best in quality and service.

My experience in business will also benefit you greatly as you'll be able to trust me to deliver the service you deserve.
